Aim

Social Care Training Ltd offers a one day course which is intended to supply all Adults who work with children and Adults guidance and building on knowledge about how allegations arise, and to support these adults by providing clear guidance about appropriate behaviours which if followed, can minimise the risk of allegations being made against them.

Target Group

Teachers, Form Tutors, Head of Years, Learning Support Assistants, Classroom Assistants, Residential Support Workers, Managers, Child Care Staff, Carers and all those with pastoral care responsibilities

Course Contents

The Children Act 2004, through the Stay Outcome of the Every Child Matters Change for Children Programme, places a duty on organisations and individuals to safeguard and promote the well being of children.

In recent years, concern has been raised about the potential vulnerability of adults working with children and young people. It has been acknowledged that there is a need for clearer advice about what constitutes illegal behaviour, what might be considered as misconduct and which behaviours might also suggest an individual is unsuitable to work with
